NEW BUSINESS:

Randy Marshall reported 12 BK VII members attended Bob's services in Magnolia. Very nice service but poorly attended due to the fact it was publicized well. Bob's son is planning to ride Bob's Goldwing to Dallas while carrying Bob's ashes . This is planned for 10-15 2011 with details to follow. Group will leave Magnolia @ 0900 on 10-15-11

Lt Rice and Randy Marshall reported the La Porte DARE car is sporting the Texas Blue Knights Texas VII logo along with the Texas Honor Ride logo on the spoiler. A motion was made to pay for the logos at a costs of $150.00 by Neal Leonard and second by Harry Stafford.

Randy Marshall reported the chapter ran out of the Texas shaped patches and checked into ordering more. Prices were $315.00/100 and $345.00/200, so he ordered 200.

Butch Blackmon reported on the rifle given to Sandra Marks at the breakfast send off for the Wounded Warriors after the THR ride in Conroe. A total of 30 officers and 12 vests were present to the escort. Butch thanked all who volunteered.

Butch Blackmon reported on the THR San Antonio Ride . Changes have been made in ref to stopping at Buccee's for fuel and then roll into San Antonio from there and not stopping at the rest stop on I-10 west of Buccee's This will allow for a later start time from Houston.

Randy reminded the chapter that we are to be a fun motorcycle group and seems we never have a fun ride for ourselves. Steve has suggested everyone put a ride suggestion in a hat and then we pull a ride from the hat when we want to ride.

BKTXVII will once again sponsor kids for a toy run. 20 kids on the north side and 20 kids on the south side. $15.00 limit was placed on each kid. We don't have to spend to total amount but the maximum limit is $15.00

The Leonard's will host a "BK TX VII Get Together" on 11-5 at their residence, 1015 Lone Star Drive. They are going to kick off the socials again as they once held when they were the Charter Members of the BK TX VII. Party will start at 1300 hrs and kids are welcome. Will need a head count. The Leonard's will provide everything and more details on 11-1-11 meeting.
